

Creative Natives Mentor Program

Interested in the Creative Natives Mentor Program but want to know more before committing?

We've got you covered - here's what you need to know.

Who is involved?

Our team will match experienced creative professionals with new or almost new grads within the same area of the industry, so if you fit into one of those two categories, this is the program for you.

What am I doing?

If you're a mentor, you'll be answering questions, giving advice, sharing industry knowledge and providing your mentee with a creative task to complete and feedback on the task.

If you're a mentee, you'll be asking questions (no such thing as a dumb question), soaking up the experience and completing the task assigned to you by your mentor to get a feel for the work you may do.

When do I start?

The start date is yet to be finalised, but we aim to launch mid-late September or early October.

Where is it? Do I have to get out of my PJs?

Absolutely not! We recommend you utilise Zoom, Teams, Google Meet or chat over the phone. If you really want to meet up in person, go for it, but there's no pressure to leave the comfort of your home.

Why are you guys doing this?

It's hard to get your foot in the door when you're a new grad. Advice, tips and feedback from someone who has experienced it all before can make a real difference. We love this industry and want to give back by ensuring those who want to be a part of it have the opportunity to do so.
